

Where does the day go night?

Vocabulary

nocturnal dusk dawn horizon rotate source Earth shadow routine lantern

Key themes and books

- Sleep and daily routines
- Nocturnal animals

- Light and dark
- Around the world

Experiences/WOW

- Watch a timelapse of day turning to night and back again
- Make a 'dark den' so we can play with light
- A lantern walk in the dark
- A bedtime story celebration day

Diary Dates

27th November- Lantern Walk at 4.30pm around the cricket field

4th December- Bedtime Story Week

5th December- Axminster Library Visit

8th December- Pyjama Day:
Parents are invited in to share a story and hot chocolate!

Key facts/Knowledge

- I know that we need light to see.
- I know that dark is the absence of light.
- I know that light comes from the sun.
- I know some other sources of light such as a torch/ candle or lightbulb.
- I know that when it is dark in Kilmington it is light somewhere else in the world.
- I know that in the past people didn't have electric lights.
- I know that some animals like to be awake at night.
- I know that everyone needs to sleep.
- I know that many festivals celebrate light in the winter.