Treachery at Traitor's Quay

The Key Stage 2 musical "Treachery at Traitor's Quay" will be performed in the village hall on Wednesday 15th July at 2.30pm and 5.30pm.

Although many of the speaking parts are allocated to the older children, taking part in the performance is part of our wider curriculum enrichment and therefore we do expect all children in Jackdaws and Ospreys to take part. In a musical, a strong chorus is extremely important as it really pulls the performance together. Also, taking part in the performance as part of the chorus is a valuable experience in preparation for taking on an acting role in the future. Therefore, even if your child says they don't have a "part", they are ALL part of the chorus and is expected that all children in Jackdaws and Ospreys attend both performances.

Parents of Jackdaws and Ospreys are invited to attend - each family can have up to three seats per performance. In the evening, we would like the children to be brought back to school ready to prepare for the evening performance at 5.10pm.
